

Speaker Bio

Gloriana Teh, MBA, PMP equips leaders so their teams can thrive by connecting the head & the heart! She founded Claritas Consulting & Coaching to provide leadership and team development services including workshops and assessments with a focus on leaders in research, engineering, construction, and manufacturing. She has a track record of building high-performing teams and unlocking value for organizations.

Prior to consulting, Gloriana led a team responsible for process development and optimization for two of Lonza's specialty chemicals divisions ($850+ annual revenue). Gloriana is an engineer by training and her expertise includes project, program, and portfolio management. With over 20 years of corporate experience working with multi-national companies, she has led large, complex programs, including a $1 billion portfolio optimization project for a Fortune 500 company.

