

Sunita Nadella

Associate Vice President, Project Director
HNTB

Sunita is a Project Director and Office Sales Manager at HNTB. As a part of office management team, she is integral in strategic planning and implementation, and she helps formulate sales plan and growth across markets in Atlanta and Nashville offices.

She has been a resident of Cobb County, GA for the last 22 years and lives there with her husband and two boys. Her younger son who is now 17 has autism. She has been very involved in special needs community in Georgia. She along with a group of mothers runs a non-profit organization called Pure Hearts of Georgia. They provide support network for families of children with intellectual disabilities and spread awareness in the community. Sunita is committed to enriching lives of individuals with disabilities so they can attain highest level of wellness, independence, and achievement.

